

TBAT	Outcomes	Skills	Assessment
1. Describe the process of sexual reproduction	Students define sexual reproduction  Students identify the specialisations of the human gametes
2. Describe the structure and function of the male reproductive system	Label the structure of the male reproductive system and describe the function of each part	Students must link the structure of an organ to its function
3. Describe the structure and function of the female reproductive system	Label the structure of the female reproductive system and describe the function of each part	Students must link the structure of an organ to its function
4. Describe the events of the menstrual cycle	Label a diagram of the menstrual cycle and describe the major events of the menstrual cycle including ovulation and menstruation
5. Describe the process of fertilisation and implantation	Describe how a woman becomes pregnant, explaining the journey of a sperm cell and how the embryo implants into the wall of the uterus	Link to prior knowledge of the structure of the female reproductive system	Extended answer question – journey of a sperm cell Teacher assessed
6. Explain what happens during gestation	Explain the major developmental stages of gestation		Self-assess

7. Explain what happens during birth	Compare birth in different animals such as humans, birds and fish	Compare how birth is different in different species	Teacher assessed
8. Justify IVF treatment (optional)	Research family profiles who want IVF and make a decision who should receive the treatment and who should not. All decisions need to be justified.	Make a decision based on ethics and justify it	Peer asses
9. Describe the changes that occur during puberty	Describe how children's bodies change during puberty, linking the changes to increase in sex hormones.  Compare the changes that happen to female to the changes that happen to males
10. Am I normal? (optional)	Lesson exploring common changes that happen as children grow up and asking what is "normal"

11. Revision lesson	Complete the revision mat to consolidate their learning.  Complete the quick quiz to assess their understanding and focus their revision
12. Assessment	End of unit test	Exam technique	Peer assessed
13. Reflection lesson	Students to reflect on their assessment using the knowledge organiser		