

Year 8 History Department Curriculum 2021 - 2022

Half Term 2 Scheme of Learning
Focus: Transatlantic Slave Trade

Enquiry Question
What is the human cost of sugar?

Intent of this scheme of learning

The intent of this scheme of learning is for students to learn about the transatlantic slave trade and the links between Europe, Africa and the Caribbean/USA. The slave trade is a complex story but necessary for students to recognise and understand exploitation and make links to the modern day.

Prior learning and links to future learning

Students studied the British empire in HT1 and were introduced to the slave trade. Students will revisit the impact of the slave trade on Britain when they study the topic of Industrial Revolution in HT5. They will need to show links between the slave trade and the cotton industry in England. Students who progress to GCSE History will revisit the role of slavery in American history in a topic on Civil Rights in America.

Disciplinary Knowledge

Disciplinary knowledge refers to knowledge of history as a discipline: the methods of historians and their conceptual frameworks. This scheme of learning primarily assesses the cause/consequence and significance across the timescale.

Interpreting the past

Students will be exposed to the works of Historians and will learn to 'Think like a Historian' by looking at interpretations of the past, and in particular the work of:

David Olusoga - Black and British – Forgotten History

Substantive Knowledge

British Knowledge:

- The economy and trade that developed from slavery
- Experiences in England
- Local Study – Liverpool Docks
- Role of the abolitionists

Meanwhile elsewhere in Europe and/or the Wider World:

- African Civilisations
- Slave Uprisings – Jamaica
- Slave Uprisings – Nat Turner's Rebellion

Assessment and Feedback

All feedback follows the whole school teaching and learning policy with collective and personalised feedback.

Links to career and the wider world

Throughout the scheme of learning, students will develop skills which are transferable to the world of work and future learning. For example, working with

Academy core values – Respect, Ambition, Resilience and Compassion

Students will be respectful of each other's views when learning about the slave trade and debating issues. Students will show compassion for the captured slaves

Assessments will assess knowledge and understanding, conceptual awareness, sources analysis and how historians interpret the past. Assessment 3 – How did the Transatlantic slave trade begin? Assessment 4 – What is the human cost of sugar?	evidence and interpretations of the past and stories of the slave trade. Students will be able to articulate their own views towards this area and pose thoughtful questions.	and acknowledge the resilience of those involved in the uprisings and the courage required.
